2. MANUAL PURPOSE

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000, gives effect to section 32 of the Constitution, which provides that everyone has the right to access information held by the State or any other person (or private body), when that information is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.

The purpose of PAIA is to:

- a. foster a culture of transparency and accountability in public and private bodies by giving effect to the right of access to information, and to
- b. actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to more fully exercise and protect all of their rights

BFSG (PTY) LTD t/a Bafa Funeral Services recognises everyone's right to access to information and is committed to provide access to our records where the proper procedural requirements as set out by PAIA and POPI have been met.

Our PAIA manual is compiled in accordance with section 51 of the Act and contains the following provisions:

B. Section 10 Paia Guide

This section provides a description of the guide referred to in Section 10 of PAIA and how you may obtain access to it

The Regulator has, in terms of section 10(1) of PAIA, as amended, updated and made available the revised Guide on how to use PAIA ("Guide"), in an easily comprehensible form and manner, as may reasonably be required by a person who wishes to exercise any right contemplated in PAIA and POPIA.

The Guide is available in each of the official languages and in braille.

The aforesaid Guide contains the description of-

- 1. the objects of PAIA and POPIA;
- 2. the postal and street address, phone and fax number and, if available, electronic mail address of-
 - 1.1. the Information Officer of every public body, and
 - 1.2. every Deputy Information Officer of every public and private body designated in terms of section 17(1) of PAIA and section 56 of POPIA;
- 3. the manner and form of a request for-
 - 3.1. access to a record of a public body contemplated in section 11; and
 - 3.2. access to a record of a private body contemplated in section 50;
- 4. the assistance available from the IO of a public body in terms of PAIA and POPIA;
- 5. the assistance available from the Regulator in terms of PAIA and POPIA;
- 6. all remedies in law available regarding an act or failure to act in respect of a right or duty conferred or imposed by PAIA and POPIA, including the manner of lodging-
 - 6.1. an internal appeal;
 - 6.2. a complaint to the Regulator; and
 - 6.3. an application with a court against a decision by the information officer of a public body, a decision on internal appeal or a decision by the Regulator or a decision of the head of a private body;
- 7. the provisions of sections 14 and 51 requiring a public body and private body, respectively, to compile a manual, and how to obtain access to a manual;
- 8. the provisions of sections 15 and 52 providing for the voluntary disclosure of categories of records by a public body and private body, respectively;
- 9. the notices issued in terms of sections 22 and 54 regarding fees to be paid in relation to requests for access; and
- 10. the regulations made in terms of section 92.

Members of the public can inspect or make copies of the Guide from the offices of the public and private bodies, including the office of the Regulator, during normal working hours.

The Guide can also be obtained-

- o upon request to the Information Officer;
- o from the website of the Regulator (https://www.justice.gov.za/inforeg/).

PAIA grants a requester access to records of a private body, if the record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. Where a public body lodges a request, the public body must be acting in the public interest.

Requests in terms of PAIA shall be made in accordance with the prescribed procedures at the rates provided.

C. Statutory Records

This section provides a description of the various statutes in terms of which we are required to maintain records

The organisation maintains statutory records and information in terms of the following legislation:

Basic Conditions of Employment Act

Consumer Protection Act

Financial Advisory & Intermediary Services Act

Financial Intelligence Centre Act

Friendly Societies Act

Long-term Insurance Act

D. Availability Of Records

This section provides a list of records held by us along with an indication of whether the record is freely available or only accessible by way of a formal request in terms of the provisions of PAIA. The section also provides a description of the category of data subject(s) to who the respective records relate along with an indication of the purpose for which the record is being kept. Records that are indicated as "Freely Available" can be accessed by contacting the Deputy Information Officer (see Contact details), without having to follow any formal procedures. Records that are indicated as a "PAIA Request", requires the requester to lodge a formal request as provided for in Annexure A

- a. Decide in accordance with PAIA whether to grant the request, and
- b. Notify the requester of the decision and, if the requester stated that he or she wishes to be informed of the decision in any other manner, inform him or her in that manner, if it is reasonably possible

If the request for access is granted, the notice must state:

- a. The access fee (if any) to be paid upon access
- b. The form in which access will be given, and
- c. That the requester may lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator or an application with a court against the access fee to be paid or the form of access granted, and the procedure, including the period allowed, for lodging a complaint with the Information Regulator or the application

If the request for access is refused, the notice must:

- a. State adequate reasons for the refusal, including the relevant provision of PAIA that was relied on
- b. Exclude, from any such reasons, any reference to the content of the records' and
- c. State that the requester may lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator or an application with a court against the refusal of the request, and the procedure (including the period) for lodging a complaint with the Information Regulator or the application

Should all reasonable steps have been taken to find a record requested, and there are reasonable grounds for believing that the record:

- a. Is in the organisation's possession, but cannot be found, or
- b. Simply does not exist,

the head of the organisation must, by way of affidavit or affirmation, notify the requester that it is not possible to provide access to that record. The affidavit or affirmation must provide full account of all steps taken to find the record in question or to determine whether the record exists, as the case may be, including all communication with every person who conducted the search on behalf of the head.
